

Historic, archived document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

1935

IF THE ELMS GO—THEN WHAT?

The Littleleaf European Linden

Tilia cordata

(Other Common Names are Lime and Basswood)

A Safe Ornamental Tree to Plant

discount to Landsc_cade Shade or Lawn

Cemeteries and Other is considered by many to be the best variety for American ~~the~~ Avenue or Lawn. It has a more compact and smaller, daintier leaves than the larger Lindens and is very easy to transplant.

One of its greatest charms is the mass of fragrant yellow-white flowers that smother the tree in May or June and supply perhaps the choicest of all honeys to thousands of bees—the famous “Basswood” Honey of epicures.

We strongly recommend the Littleleaf Linden to all lovers of fine ornamentals who need a safe tree to plant—which at the present time the Elm is not.

Kelsey-Highlands Nursery has a beautiful stock of fine, clean, young specimen trees in perfect condition from five to ten feet in height. IT IS THE ONLY LARGE STOCK OF THE LITTLELEAF LINDEN—SO FAR AS WE CAN DISCOVER—IN AMERICA. Do not miss this opportunity to secure them.

Prices of LITTLELEAF EUROPEAN LINDEN, Tilia cordata:

5-6 feet, $1.50 each, $13.50 per 10, $120.00 per 100.

6-8 feet, $2.50 each, $22.50 per 10, $202.00 per 100.

8-10 feet, $4.00 each, $36.00 per 10.

HARLAN P. KELSEY, Inc.

East Boxford, Mass.

Our “Garden Treasure,” in colors, will interest you—sent on request.

1710
d1935

IF THE ELMS GO—THEN WHAT?

The Littleleaf European Linden

Tilia cordata

(Other Common Names are Lime and Basswood)

Beautiful Safe Ornamental Tree to Plant

For Street, Shade or Lawn

The Littleleaf Linden is considered by many authorities to be far the best variety for American conditions, for Street, Avenue or Lawn. It has a more compact habit and smaller, daintier leaves than the commoner Lindens and is very easy to transplant.

One of its greatest charms is the mass of fragrant yellow-white flowers that smother the tree in May or June and supply perhaps the choicest of all honeys to thousands of bees—the famous "Basswood" Honey of epicures.

We strongly recommend the Littleleaf Linden to all lovers of fine ornamentals who need a safe tree to plant—which at the present time the Elm is not.

Kelsey-Highlands Nursery has a beautiful stock of fine, clean, young specimen trees in perfect condition from five to ten feet in height. IT IS THE ONLY LARGE STOCK OF THE LITTLELEAF LINDEN—SO FAR AS WE CAN DISCOVER—IN AMERICA. Do not miss this opportunity to secure them.

Prices of LITTLELEAF EUROPEAN LINDEN,
Tilia cordata:

5-6 feet, $1.50 each, $13.50 per 10, $120.00 per 100.
6-8 feet, $2.50 each, $22.50 per 10, $202.00 per 100.
8-10 feet, $4.00 each, $36.00 per 10.

HARLAN P. KELSEY, Inc.

East Boxford, Mass.

Our "Garden Treasure," in colors, will interest you—sent on request.

